

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dora Capozza

Position: Emeritus Professor of Psychology, University of Padova, Italy

Research Interests: Prejudice, Dehumanization, Prejudice Reduction, Social Identity, Well-being in Organizations

Teaching: She taught courses of Social and Group Psychology as Full Professor of Social Psychology, University of Padova, Italy

Institutional Positions

- Founder and Coordinator of the Doctorate in Social and Personality Psychology, which lasted until the foundation of the Ph.D. School in Psychological Sciences, University of Padova
- Director of the Department of Applied Psychology (2010-2011)
- Vice-President of the Faculty of Psychology for seven years, University of Padova

Visiting Professor Abroad

- University of Brighton (Great Britain)
- University of Goteborg (Sweden)
- University of Cornell (US)
- University of Bristol (Great Britain)
- University of Lausanne (Swiss)
- University of Zagreb (Croatia)
- University Eotvos Lorand (Budapest)
- Michigan University (US)

Editorial Activities

- Associate Editor for the European Review of Social Psychology
- Editor-in-chief of TPM journal (Testing, Psychometrics, Methodology in Applied Psychology) from 1994 to 2024.

Member of Scientific and Professional Societies

- AIP (Social Psychology Section) Association of Italian Psychologists
- APA American Psychological Association
- APS Association for Psychological Science (Fellow)
- EASP European Association of Social Psychology
- SPSP Society for Personality and Social Psychology